

BRINGING THE STORY TO LIFE

This activity is one of our favourites and, if you like watching movies, it will probably be one of yours too.

Our aim here is to find books that have been made into movies. You will be reading the book first and then watching the movie and seeing if you can spot the differences between them. You should note how the movie differed from the images you had in your mind while reading the book.

Ask yourself questions like; What did they do differently in the movie? What did the movie leave out or add in? Which characters were true to the author's description?
